

Real time benefit check – access patient-specific formulary and pharmacy benefit information

Effective October 1, 2018, we began to offer a new functionality, real time benefit check (RTBC).

Please note that providers need the most current version of their EMR/EHR system that will support RTBC and its functionality.

Additional information

Providers should to contact their EMR/EHR vendor for additional information.